The Daily Quote

"Congress has in some ways already closed for business until after the mid-term election. Any laws made between now and November will be minor... Some Republicans say the lack of action in Congress is a positive... 'I tell people, we're not getting anything done and that's good,' said Sen. Tom Coburn (R-Okla.). Speaker John Boehner (R-Ohio) said shortly after the 2012 election that he was 'confident' Congress and the White House would reach a deal on comprehensive immigration reform. A year later, he scaled back expectations dramatically..."
